Beyond Kubler-Ross: New Perspectives on Death, Dying and Grief

Monday, November 21, 2011, 8 a.m. to Noon
Salinas Valley Memorial Hospital Education Conference Center
5 Lower Ragsdale Drive in Ryan Ranch, Monterey

Video Presentation moderated by Frank Sesno, Professor of Public Policy and Communication at George Washington University and CNN Special Correspondent

A nationally renowned panel of specialists in spirituality, psycho-social issues, health and human services will explore the emotional, practical, spiritual and health concerns that emerge throughout a serious illness and at the end of life. The discussion will define spirituality as different from religion, and evaluate approaches to end-of-life reminiscence, life review, and dignity enhancement. It will describe successful approaches to helping clients utilize and enhance their coping capabilities through various spiritual practices, rituals, beliefs, and within various faith communities. CEUs available.

- Registration in advance is $25; $30 at the door.
- Optional companion book is $20 with registration by Nov. 9; $25 after Nov. 9.
